Discovering the history and traditions of the Riviera and the Côte d'Azur

Relive the 19th-century tourist history by exploring legendary places like the Ligurian Riviera and the Côte d'Azur, always privileged destinations for aristocrats and illustrious travelers. This one-week itinerary will guide you through the wonders of Sanremo, renowned as an elite retreat since the 19th century, and continue to historic, charming locations such as Monaco, Nice, and Genova, which have attracted artists, nobles, and writers over the centuries.

The tour offers a unique perspective on the historical and cultural heritage of these iconic destinations. You will visit historical residences like the Royal Palace of Monaco and Villa Ephrussi, discover the ancient village of Dolceacqua with its fascinating castle, and stroll through the medieval alleys of Albenga or the Caruggi in the center of Genova. In addition, you will immerse yourself in the elegant and glamorous atmosphere of the Côte d'Azur, long a symbol of elite tourism, all complemented by the typical delicacies that will accompany your days.
