The Veneto in all its splendour

Program

Day 1

Arrival and check in at hotel in Lido di Jesolo or hotel in area Mestre/Marghera.

Day 2

Excursion to Murano, Burano and Venice. A private boat will take a private boat to the islands of Murano and Burano. In Murano, you'll also visit a glass-blowing shop. After the excursion, your boat will take you to Venice: free time to discover the peculiarities of this city on the Lagoon and visit with the guide in a typical "Bacaro" with a glass of wine and typical snacks. At the conclusion, the boat will take you to back to the mainland and to return to the hotel.

Day 3

Today, Treviso. Treviso may be considered one of Italy's most beautiful painted cities. The frescoes and decoration that adorn archways, churches, and palaces bring the city's history to life. Running through Treviso is the Sile River, which, together with a labyrinth of canals, gives the city an idyllic atmosphere. In Treviso, a guided walking tour so that you can see the city (excludes all entrance fees). After a bit of time on your own in the afternoon, you'll reach Italy's oldest wine route, where you'll visit a Prosecco wine cellar and finally get a chance to try Prosecco wine.

Afterwards, return trip to the hotel.

Day 4

Morning travel by motor coach to the university city of Padua, where you'll take a two-hour guided tour. A city with ancient origins - it was a pre-Roman settlement - Padua still retains numerous, intact signs of its important past. The vibrant old city with its lively squares, arcades, and beautiful palaces boasts artistic and architectural treasures of incomparable beauty. Visit of a typical coffee bar with coffee tasting and biscuits. After a bit of time on your own, you'll travel with the motor coach on to Vicenza, the City of Palladio, where a touristic guide will help you to discover this elegant city. Late in the afternoon, return trip to the hotel.

Day 5

Departure. Possibility of extension nights in Abano Terme, the famous thermal city.
